16 Case No. CV-03-5158 RMW

17 Plaintiff,

18 STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED] ORDER
RE CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

19 vs.

20 COUNTY OF SAN MATEO, et al.

21 Defendants.

22 RECITALS

23 1. WHEREAS, this case was initially filed in 2003;

24 2. WHEREAS, the County filed a motion for summary judgment in March 2008, which was
25 granted in September 2008;

19 3. WHEREAS, the Ninth Circuit reversed in July 2012 and Ordered that Plaintiff be 20 appointed counsel;

21 4. WHEREAS, in September 2012 the District Court reopened the case, but stayed it
22 pending appointment of counsel (and an additional four weeks following appointment);

23 5. WHEREAS, in January 2013 the District Court appointed counsel;

24 6. WHEREAS, since that time the undersigned have been diligently exploring whether the 25 case can be resolved without further litigation;

26 7. WHEREAS, those conversations remain ongoing, no significant discovery has occurred,
27 but a Case Management Conference is scheduled for April 26, 2013, a date which triggers meet and

1 confer and filing requirements that the parties would prefer to delay until they exhaust current resolution
2 efforts;

3 WHEREAS, April 26, 2013 is the first scheduled Case Management Conferences and the
4 parties have not previously requested a continuance of a Case Management Conference;

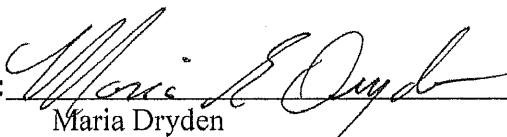

5 WHEREAS, because Plaintiff remains in civil custody, communication with him is more
6 challenging than normal and can therefore require additional time;

7 STIPULATION

8 The parties hereby stipulate that, with the Court's agreement, the Case Management Conference
9 currently scheduled for April 26, 2013, be continued for approximately three months to facilitate 10 exhaustion of settlement discussions.
